

To Our Valued Clients and Friends of Cambridge -

I am pleased to announce, that as of October 1st, I officially became the owner and CEO of Cambridge Corporate Services. After 30+ years of fantastic leadership and growth by my father, John Dockery, I look forward to continuing his legacy of excellence in the corporate services industry. I appreciate all of your guidance, patience and friendship over the past year and a half as we embarked on this generational transition

As we contemplated succession planning for my father's retirement, it became clear to the entire Dockery family that jeopardizing Cambridge's ethos, through a sale to a third party or any other arrangement, was not an option. In this new iteration, our priorities can remain providing high-quality, bespoke and client-centered services while continuing to maintain the care and well-being of our employees as paramount.

That has always been, and will remain, the Cambridge way.

I am hugely grateful to the entire Cambridge executive team of David Blaum, Bill Kelly, Lou Danielle and Mike Kourmoulis for their support through this transition and for providing invaluable continuity as we move forward.

In other good news, we will soon be certified as a Women Owned and Operated Business through WBENC (Women's Business Enterprise National Council). I will keep you apprised of that status as our application gets processed.

As part of this official transition, I hope to sit down with each of you in the coming weeks to explore how we can continue to improve on our services to meet your business needs. It's an exciting time ahead for Cambridge and I'm glad to be working with each of you moving forward.

Please know I am always available to you, as my father was, and I value your advice and feedback. Thank you for continued support and here's to a wonderful new chapter for Cambridge.

Sincerely -

Ciara Dockery
